RAILROAD RATE BILL.

The Hepburn railroad rate bill, as amended and passed by the Senate provides:

That the Interstate Commerce Commission shall investigate charges of unjust and unreasonable rates of common carriers.

If discriminations are found, the commission is empowered to fix a just and reasonable maximum rate.

Orders of the commission go into effect within 30 days and continue in force for two years, unless set aside by the commission or a court.

The penalty for disobedience of the orders of the commission is a fine of $5 000 daily.

United States circuit courts shall have jurisdiction over suits to annul acts of the commission, the granting of interlocutory decrees without hearings and making appeals direct to the Supreme Court.

Oil pipe lines, express and sleeping car companies are declared common carriers.

The commission has access to the accounts of the companies affected.

What the bill will contain when the committee of conference of the Senate and House of Representatives gets through with it only time will tell. It is already hinted that the oil pipe lines and the express companies' amentments are to be stricken out through the Rockefeller influence, and the fact that most of the influential Republican Senators and members of the House have express company franks lends color to this report.

THE GREATEST OF THESE.

That was an interesting meeting of the Board of Charities which was recently held in the city of Petersburg, and the paper read by Mr. Burdette Lewis, of Richmond, was of thrilling import. How to deal with prisoners while in confinement and what to do for them on their release from prison walls are questions that should address themselves to all good citizens. Locking the doors of our jails on men and women who have violated the laws of the land and the doors of our homes and our hearts against them after they have gone wrong is inhuman and unchristian. We are glad to know that some christian men and women are interested in these unfortunate ones, and to learn from the paper of Mr. Lewis that so much of practical value and of moral uplift is being done for them.

When the violated law has been indicated they are no longer turned out on an unwelcoming and unsympathetic world to be driven to the bad again, but are met at the opening door with the opening hand ready to help back to virtue's ways, to paths of purity.

"In as much as ye have done it to one of the least of these ye have done it unto me."

"The greatest of these is charity."

It is high time that Congressmen should be allowed to go home and look after their fences. Many of them are sadly in need of repair.

Commissioner Koiner has gone to England in search of home-seekers and farm laborers for Virginia. We sincerely hope the Major will select none but the worthy. We haven't an inch of ground in all Virginia for loafers or the lawless.

Mr. Roosevelt has provided for ex-Gov. Montague a delightful summer outing and at the same time assigned him to high and honorable place, the duties incident to which will be both pleasant and profitable. The honor has been well bestowed and we extend our distinguished fellow citizen our sincere congratulations.

Richmond's business representatives met together in a banquetting hall and talked of the city's past, present and future. There were more of figures than of fancy, and we must confess that those of Mr. Joseph Bryan as to the industries of the place were a revelation to us. No good can come to the Capital City of the Commonwealth that the people of the Commonwealth will not rejoice in. Glorious in war and in peace, may Richmond "live long and prosper."

Notice.

As we have been unable to renew our clubbing contracts, we beg to give notice that we have withdrawn all clubbing offers with this paper.

APPOMATTOX AND BUCKINGHAM TIMES.

Andersonville.

As I write this Saturday evening the rain is coming down quite beautifully, and our hearts go out to Him who has promised to send the early and latter rain and give seed time and harvest. How many glad hearts there are this evening; but suppose it continued to rain as long as the drouth has lasted? Reader, ask yourself the question, would you grumble

News came this evening that Mr. Wm. Childress had been shot and killed by a colored man who mistook him for Rube Jones, a colored man. Bill Childress, as we called him, was one of the first company that went to the front from this county with Buckingham Lee Guard. He was a good soldier and a good, quiet, industrious citizen. I liked Bill. He always seemed glad to meet me. I shall miss him count days.

I am sorry for the poor, foolish negro. The negro problem will solve its-if if lawlessness with the race keeps on as at present. Wouldn't it be well for the State to buy the county of Accomac and make of it a State farm. Convicts couldn't escape so easily. At the rate Captain Morgan is getting them in he could furnish labor enough to work the county.

Invitations are being received to the State Normal School Commencement. About fifty young ladies will graduate. Hon. H. D. Flood is to make the address. Buckingham and Appomattox are both represented in the graduating class. We are throwing flowers to our Andersonville graduate. Bessie shall have the nicest that grows on the ridge. If I can't be there I'll send the flowers.

What a time the old boys will have at Appomattox Unveiling Day. My mouth waters for the good fat lamb that Maj. Flood and others will have. I have a mind to come and bring my haversack. And just to think, there will be no Yankees to molest or make afraid. William Gills, Sam Hurt and Charley Bagby are the only ones I know living of Co. K, 4th Va. Cav. in Appomattox. Bryant, Chick, Cheadle, Glenn, Hardy and others I don't remember, are dead.

The Andersonville sick are all on the mend.

Mamie is the best gardener on the ridge. Uncle Tom is back now and it will not be long before Mary will be crossing the road with early vegetables. She remembers the Scriptures that saith the poor ye have with you always.

A letter from Mrs. Bullard tells of trouble with Rev. Mr. Bull-rd's eye. A Richmond specialist made an examination last week and recommended entire rest flat on his back, with all light shut out.

I gave the date of the Tabernacle meeting in my last letter wrong. It commences the 8th of July. One of America's greatest preachers, Dr. Morrison, of Louisville, Ky., will lead.

Some of our Democratic papers and office holders are trying to down Roosevelt. A man like Roosevelt can't be downed. No country on earth has two greater men than Bryan and Roosevelt. Let's make Bryan president next time. Roosevelt has the grafters on the run. Bryan will clean them up with Roosevelt in the Senate.

Enonville.

Mr. Emmet Gillespie, of Cincinnati, is at home for a month. This young man left here only 12 months ago, and in this short time has graduated in telegraphy, shorthand and typewriting, and holds a diploma of honor. He has accepted a position and will return to Cincinnati after this month's vacation.

Miss Lottie Gunter, of Lynchburg, is at home for the summer.

Mr. Irad. Gunter, of Schuyler, is also at home.

Mr. Charlie Coleman returned to West Virginia a few days ago.

The long and protracted drouth is at last broken by a good and gentle rain. A good many of our farmers are ready and will plant on this season.

Wheat and gardens suffered much during the dry spell.

Owing to showers only a small crowd was present to hear Mr. Johnson preach Sunday at Enon.

There were all day services and a missionary sermon at Enon Tuesday, the 28th.

Wonder if Platt and Depew will vote to expel the wicked Burton?

The Cattle Quarantine Question Explained.

inspector has given his written certificate to this effect.

It is the opinion of the writer that many countries bordering the quarantine in Virginia, though now South of the same, can be placed above the line if the said counties will only support some good local inspectors, and by so doing get rid of the tick and enforce the quarantine law instead of trying to get rid of the line and law, though continuing to breed the ticks from year to year.

While some so-called authorities advocate experimenting further with the cattle tick—trying to produce an immunity among cattle against the tick by placing ticks on calves, a few at a time, until the animal can stand a number of ticks without having the Texas fever—Gentlemen of Virginia, leave this foolish method of breeding cattle ticks here in our old State to those who are fond of writing and reading after themselves. No man who actually knows anything of stock breeding or practical farming, or who ever puts a dollar of his own in a farm, would think of advising such a foolish thing as breeding cattle ticks and spending the State's money getting cattle used to them so they will not have fever, when you can exterminate the tick from your entire farm for ever in one year's time by the simple method of starvation—keeping the cattle from the pastures on which ticks were dropped last year, and feeding sulphur with salt (one part of sulphur to two of salt).

Admit that there is a possible chance of produeng this immunity in some individuals by putting ticks on them. If you accomplish your purpose of immuning the animal against the fever, what about the tick as a parasite? Not only have you got to immune every animal that you bring in a county where ticks are each time, but you are still breeding the tick as a parasite. Of course, we cannot and should not, expect people from north of Virginia to know anything practical about the cattle tick, as Lynchburg is about as far north as the tick is known in the United States.

Evergreen.

Everything seems refreshed by the recent good rain. The farmers are busy planting tobacco.

Mrs. Sallie Hurdle died at her home May 25 h. She leaves a mother, husband and several small children to grieve for her. She bore her sufferings with christian fortitude and said she wanted to be with her Saviour, but dreaded to leave her children. May we all try and make their young lives happy and point them to Him, who said "Suffer little children and forbid them not to come unto me for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Mr. Albert Harvey and wife visited Dr. Walker of Pamplin City last week.

Miss Bertha Wooldridge of Wesley Chapel neighborhood, is visiting her cousin here, Mrs. Hudson Cheatham.

We are glad to state that Mrs. Edmund Cawthorn is improved, so much so that she was able to take a drive last Sunday.

Mr. Jesse Jennings has a very sick child with pneumonia.

Some of our young people went to Forest Sunday to hear Mr. Chockett. Among the crowd were Misses Nellie Thornton and Alma McDearmon.

We are sorry to state that Miss Lizzie League continues sick.

The new Methodist church at this place will be painted in the near future.

Misses Sadie Snell and Annie Rugland were the guests of Miss Odelle and Miss Eunice Inge Sunday.

It appears to be the professional opinion of Dowie's legal advisers and business managers that his health would be much better in the balmy air of Ben MacDhui, New Mexico, than in Zion City.

Students of politics are anxiously looking forward to 1908 to see what a presidential contest will look like without any campaign contributions or railway passes.

This morning about 8 o'clock Agent Sears recieved a telegram from Prospect to look out for tramp who stole horse at that place last night about 1 o'clock. In about 10 minutes after the receipt of the wire Sheriff McKinney and his Deputy, Winston McKinney, and a reporter for the TIMES mounted and went after a stranger who had just passed through the village going South. The stranger was overhauled and ordered to surrender. He gave his name as Winkin, a German, and the newspaper man wanted to know something and Winkie said he got the horse at Prospect and that his reason for doing the ugly thing was that he was "broke." Mr. Richardson, the owner of the horse was notified and will come up with an officer from Prince Edward and take back Winkie and his horse. It was a thick work and the job was smoothly handled—inside of 15 minutes Winkie was behind the bars, charged with horse stealing, which is a felony. It began to look like Winkie was in for a race when the party came up on him, as under the lash of the whip he was speeding at a lively gate, but McKinney's horse was fresh and soon headed him and demanded a surrender as a big gun was leveled at him. No resistance was offered and the party drove back to town and Winkie was placed in jail. The newspaper man, who rode Winkie's prize back to town, declares Winkie had a good saddler.

Southside.

This has been the loveliest May we have ever seen. The weather was delightfully cool and pleasant, though not the most desirable for crops.

Wheat is looking beautiful. The farmers are busy getting ready their tobacco land. We think plants are plentiful.

As usual there is a scarcity of news. Just the same old routine from day to day. Just now every one seems interested in the commencement and the unveiling. A lady remarked recently that "if the committee undertook to provide a public dinner for the crowd that she expected would be present there would not be a sheep or chicken left."

Mr. Abbitt's sawmill has been busy in this community for some time. He is sawing for Mr. J. T. Cole now, and will move from there to Mr. T. A. Coleman's. Mr. J. W. Coleman will have lumber sawed for a new dwelling.

Mr. John S. Plunkett and his "hustling" boys, Dave and Paul, are hauling lumber to rebuild their home. They commenced on the house this week.

Mr. Tilden Paulette had the misfortune to have his house burned last week.

Mr. Geo. W. Coleman, Jr., who is working at South Norfolk, spent Sunday with his home-folks. He is enthusiastic in praise of that part of the Old Dominion, and says that it is not exactly "the land flowing with milk and honey," but that oysters and fresh fish, strawberries and new vegetables are abundant and cheap.

We were sorry to hear of the illness of Dr. W. H. Abbitt and hope to see him out again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Oder and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Cawthorn recently.

Miss Sadie Coleman returned today after a most delightful visit to relatives in the Hill City.

Mrs. J. T. Cawthorn has been quite sick the past week.

Master Bell Wingfield visited his home-folks in Charlotte Saturday last.

News was received here yesterday of the serious illness of little Virginia Cheadle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cheadle, near Huntsville.

Mr. Chockley preached a most impressive sermon at Forest on Sunday. This church has a good Sunday school and organized a Ladies' Missionary Society recently.

The TIMES continues to grow better. What a blessing is a good, progressive, wideawake county paper. In this "hustling" age people do not take much time for visiting or writing. Friends drift apart and sometimes for years have no knowledge of each other. Then some day we will take up the county paper, and some little item of news will bring to mind so many pleasant memories of some friend of by-gone days. Recently we saw in the TIMES notices of the marriages of Miss Lucy and Mr. George Covington, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Covington. It is strange to think of Lillie as the mother of married children, it seems such a short time since we were young folks together. Here's a loving greeting to you, dear friend, and may you and yours be blessed with every good gift.

What has become of the correspondent from Brownallen. Wake up, please. We enjoy the news from that part of old Buckingham, and should like to know if that Togo bachelor has found anyone yet to help keep that new store, or, rather, to help him spend what he makes in that new store. Come, let us hear from down that way.

On last Thursday a party of N. Y. distinguished gentlemen visited the surrender grounds. It was the N. Y. State Monument Commission and members of the New York General Assembly.

General Alexander S Webb, Gen. Anson G McCook, Major Clinton Beckwith and Major Charles R Richardson, all members of the commission proper; Lieutenant Governor M Linn Bruce, Senator George H Malby, chairman of the finance committee of the State Senate; Senator Johnsen, president pro tem of the Senate; Senator William W Armstrong, Senator J F Aiken and Senator Owen G Cassidy; Assemblymen Edwin A Merritt, Jr., James T Rogers, Arthur C Wade, John C Evans, V S Shanahan: Colonel Archie E Baxter, clerk of the New York Assembly; Hon Hugh Hastings, State historian; Major A J Zabriskie, secretary to the commission; Hon Chas H Hotaling, sergeant at-arms of the State Senate; George M Shotwell, secretary to Senator Malby.

In the party were some of the most distinguished men of the United States, such as Senator Armstrong, who conducted the investigation of the three big life insurance companies, and Assemblyman Rogers, who was also a member of the committee; Generals Webb and McCook, both distinguished soldiers in the Federal army; Senator Baxter, author of the famous Raines liquor law, and Maj. Beckwith, who laid the first thirty miles of the Norfolk and Wes ern railway.

The party was in charge of Mr. Jas. E. Prindle, one of the travelling passenger agents of the N. & W.

Messrs. Peers and Clement met the party at the depot and showed them over the surrender grounds. It was a very fine body of men, and we hope they will come again.

Mr. Riely Bagby, who resided near the line in Buckingham, died last Thursday of measles. His wife, who was a Miss Watson, died about ten days ago.
